

Our offer:

DAAD Scholarships are available for Master and PhD courses at selected institutions in: Benin, Botswana, Cameroon, Ghana, Kenya, Malawi, Nigeria, Tanzania, and Uganda.

Choose from a wide range of disciplines, including:

- Engineering (Energy Technology; Metallurgical and Materials Engineering),
- Natural Sciences (Mathematics, Geomatics, Bioinformatics, Biostatistics, Biology, Food Chemistry, Parasitology, Pharmacology),
- Public and Environmental Health,
- Agricultural Sciences, and
- Social Sciences.

Who can apply?

- Graduates and postgraduates from Sub-Saharan Africa with a first academic degree if applying for a Master programme, or with a Master's degree if applying for a PhD programme.
- Female applicants and candidates from less privileged regions or groups are especially encouraged to participate in the programme!

Your benefits:

Monthly individual scholarship payments, payment of tuitions fees, research allowances, and options for a research stay abroad (subject to funding and a successful application).

DAAD IN-COUNTRY/ IN-REGION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAMME

Apply for a DAAD scholarship in Sub-Saharan Africa

Do you see your future academic career contributing to sustainable development and the SDGs in Africa? Are you planning to pursue a Master's or PhD degree in this field? Then have a look at the study programmes offered by the DAAD within its In-Country/ In-Region Scholarship Programme.

Deadline:
21st November
2024

For more information, contact details and to apply, please visit:
daad.de/go/en/stipa10000486