

DO YOU HAVE WHAT IT TAKES TO BE A RHODES SCHOLAR?

The RHODES SCHOLARSHIPS for Southern Africa are awarded annually for post-graduate studies at Oxford University.

Established in 1903, the Rhodes Trust awards over 100 Rhodes Scholarships annually to high potential, exceptional young people interested in furthering their studies at the Masters and Doctoral level; and “fighting the world’s fight” by putting effective ideas into action. The oldest and preeminent global scholarships for post-graduate studies, the Rhodes Scholarships bring together and develop exceptional young leaders from across the world at the University of Oxford (UK).

HOW DO YOU APPLY?

ONLINE APPLICATIONS for the Rhodes Scholarships for Southern Africa open in June annually.

Outstanding young graduates, from across Southern Africa, who excel academically; demonstrate leadership skills; are committed to making a difference in the broader community; and have the energy to fulfil their ambitions, are invited to submit their applications for the Rhodes Scholarships.

NEED MORE INFORMATION?

To find out more about the RHODES SCHOLARSHIP visit www.rhodeshouse.ox.ac.uk or contact the National Secretariat for the Rhodes Scholarship for Southern Africa on southernafrica.secretary@rhodestrust.com

RHODES SCHOLARS - "STANDING UP FOR THE WORLD"