

HEAD: VIDEO PRODUCTION

(Payclass 11; Permanent Post)

Newsroom & Video Production Communication and Marketing Department

The University of Cape Town's (UCT) Communication and Marketing Department (CMD) seeks to appoint a highly competent video producer to join the Newsroom and Video Production unit to drive the delivery of excellent multimedia content. This includes a complete understanding of all aspects of video production, from pre- to post-, and the ability to coordinate video projects from start to finish, using visual and audio elements to communicate a clear message that consistently conveys UCT's strategic goals, vision, and mission.

The successful candidate will facilitate the production of video and other multimedia content within the Newsroom & Video Production unit from concept to completion. The incumbent's responsibilities will also include the management of internal staff and external freelancers (including sourcing and contracting); the storyboarding and scriptwriting of all video content; scouting locations and setting up shoots with internal and external stakeholders; art directing and guiding the look and feel of videos; taking responsibility for video and editorial quality; ensuring that all multimedia content is delivered to expected quality standards within deadline and on budget; integrating multimedia content with content produced by the newsroom, other CMD units and UCT faculties and departments to ensure seamless integration with the wider communications offering of the university.
