

MANAGER: RESEARCH, OPERATIONS & DATA

(Payclass 11, Permanent Post)

SALDRU Survey & Data Hub in the Southern Africa Labour and Development Research Unit, School of Economics Faculty of Commerce

The SALDRU Survey & Data Hub (SSDH), is based at the Southern Africa Labour and Development Research Unit (SALDRU) which is located in the School of Economics in the Faculty of Commerce, at the University of Cape Town. SALDRU is accredited by the University Research Committee (URC) and conducts socio-economic research on poverty and inequality, labour markets, education, youth and health.

The SALDRU Survey & Data Hub serves as support for SALDRU researchers in their pursuit of knowledge and change. We collaborate closely with researchers to craft robust study designs, expertly implement primary data collection, and meticulously process resulting data. The culmination of our efforts yields datasets for researchers to generate policy-relevant, data-driven research. The SSDH runs multiple large-scale national and local surveys across a variety of research interests.

The Manager of Research, Operations & Data will report to the Senior Manager (SM): Operations and Data assisting the SM in overseeing all aspects of the operations of the SALDRU Survey & Data Hub. This includes managing the day-to-day operations, managing multiple surveys, supervising staff, ensuring quality control, and implementing processes to improve efficiency and effectiveness. The Manager of Research, Operations and Data will also oversee the research & communications vertical with a focus on survey methods.
