

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH NURSE

(Payclass 10; Permanent)

Occupational Health and Safety Environment Properties and Services Department

The OHSE Division within P&S is seeking an Occupational Health Nurse.

The main purpose of this position is to provide clinical services and support functions within the OH Unit.

- Liaise with statutory bodies and management to address occupational health governance and compliance.
- Planning, coordinating and implementing of the medical surveillance programme for staff at pre-employment, baseline, pre-placement, periodic, and exit of employment at UCT.
- Mediate and initiate interventions to uphold occupational health standards and best practices.
- Network with faculties and departments to optimize the service delivery of the OHSE Division.
- Advise and support OHSE Division managers in the investigation of occupational health-related incidents.
- Subject matter advisor to inter-departmental managers on institutional occupational health protocols.

The role reports to the Occupational Health Unit (OHU) Manager within the Occupational Health Safety and Environment (OHSE) Division and provides expert advice on matters impacting occupational health in consultation with various related subject matter experts.

To view and apply for this position, please visit the UCT Jobs site View (For Internal Applicants) and View (For external Applicants) to create a profile and to submit your application.

Closing date: 02 February 2024

Reference:

ID 562

UCT is a designated employer and is committed to the pursuit of excellence, diversity and redress in achieving its equity targets in accordance with the Employment Equity Plan of the University and its Employment Equity goals and targets. Preference will be given to candidates from the under-represented designated groups. Our Employment Equity Policy is available at www.hr.uct.ac.za/hr/policies/employ_equity

UCT reserves the right not to appoint.