

University of Cape Town Lung Institute ALLERGY AND IMMUNOLOGY UNIT

CLINICAL ASSOCIATE

The Allergy and Immunology Unit (AIU), based at the University of Cape Town Lung Institute (www.lunginstitute.co.za), require applications for a CLINICAL ASSOCIATE on a Fixed Term Contract.

The Lung Institute is wholly-owned subsidiary of the University of Cape Town and is recognised internationally as a leader in the study of treatments for airways diseases, having performed more than 150 research projects field. The Allergy and Immunology Unit was established in 2000 to provide state of the art clinical and laboratory services for the diagnosis and management of allergic and immune-based diseases, with a mission to transform lives of patients through innovate science and compassionate care.

Minimum Requirements:

- Bachelors Degree in Clinical Medical Practice
- Registration with Health Professions Council of South Africa (HPCSA)
- Prior experience within a clinical, medical or healthcare environment; ideally with previous experience withing clinical research
- Good Clinical Practice Certification (advantageous)
- Dispensing License (advantageous)
- Keen interest in Research
- Relevant clinical trial experience as sub-investigator (preferable)
- Good Computer Skills (proficiency in Microsoft Office or electronic Data Management systems, email, internet)

Responsibilities include (but not limited to):

- Carrying out clinical evaluation and clinical investigation of participants
- Review screening, pre-screening, and screening success rates for clinical trials
- Responsible for checking participant inclusion / exclusion to studies
- Providing information and support to consenting participants for a clinical study
- Taking care of the participants during their active treatment and follow up period
- Provide medical expertise to improve and enhance participant care.
- Ensure fair and ethical treatment of all participants involved in clinical trials
- Collecting, compiling and Analysis of participant's data
- Ensure that the study participant case record forms and clinical documentation meets good clinical practice standards
- Interface with non-unit clinical and trial staff and regulatory personnel

Additional Information:

- 12-month Fixed Term Contract
- Working hours: maximum 40 hours per week, Monday to Friday.

Application Process:

To apply, interested applicants are requested to submit an application form, a cover letter and updated CV to: uctlirecruitment@uct.ac.za

Applications will only be accepted via email.

Reference (in subject line): Clinical Associate: AIU-001

Closing Date: 19 January 2024

Only shortlisted candidates, who respond with the correct reference, will be contacted. Should you not receive a response within 30 days of the closing date, please consider your application unsuccessful.

The University of Cape Town Lung Institute is committed to equity in our employment practices and reserves the right not to appoint.

Please Note: This Position is not on UCT Conditions of Service.