

LECTURER/SENIOR LECTURER Michaelis School of Fine Art Faculty of Humanities

The Michaelis School of Fine Art is internationally recognized as one of Africa's foremost institutions for the study of fine art. The school seeks to appoint a new member of staff who would be able to teach and research in creative thinking and critical literacy as taught in a foundational course for fine art practitioners, as well as curation and contemporary practices and theory – this is inclusive of all levels including PHD level.

The school recognizes the interdisciplinary nature of contemporary art, and we welcome applicants who will engage with emerging trends and innovations in contemporary art practice.
