

LECTURER: LOGIC AND THE PHILOSOPHY OF LANGUAGE
(nGAP)
DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY
FACULTY OF HUMANITIES

Through the New Generation of Academics Programme (nGAP, Phase 8), funded by the Department of Higher Education and Training, the Philosophy Department is seeking to appoint a Lecturer with a specialisation in Logic and the Philosophy of Language.

The nGAP (Phase 8) appointment is a full-time, permanent position that offers a promising, current PhD student a six-year academic development programme. The programme will include mentoring and other forms of career development and support to enable the successful candidate to complete their PhD and begin their career as an academic.

The nGAP appointment is structured as follows:

In the first three years of employment, 80% of time is allocated to research and PhD studies with the remaining 20% towards teaching and administrative duties.

In the fourth year of employment, 50% of time is allocated to research and PhD studies with the remaining 50% towards teaching and administrative duties.

In the fifth and sixth years of the programme, the appointee performs duties as per the department norms followed by continuing permanent employment thereafter.

This appointment will be made in terms of the purposes outlined in the Staffing South African Universities Framework (SSAUF). For more information please see: www.dhet.gov.za/ssauf/ngap.html.
