

A photograph of a young woman with dark, curly hair, wearing glasses and white earbuds. She is sitting at a wooden desk, looking down at her hands which are clasped together. On the desk in front of her is a laptop, a green notebook, a yellow pencil, and some papers with diagrams. The background shows a couch and a lamp.

1

Funding opportunities

Postgraduate study is an investment of time, intellect and resources – funding plays a critical role in making that journey possible. This category brings together the wide range of scholarships, bursaries, fellowships and funding advice available at UCT to support postgraduate students at different stages of their studies. Whether you are exploring funding options before applying or navigating the realities of sustaining yourself during your degree, these services are designed to reduce financial barriers and help you focus on what matters most – your research and academic success.

This section contains info about the services available to you at UCT under this category

Postgraduate Funding Office (PGFO)

Scan this code to download the full series

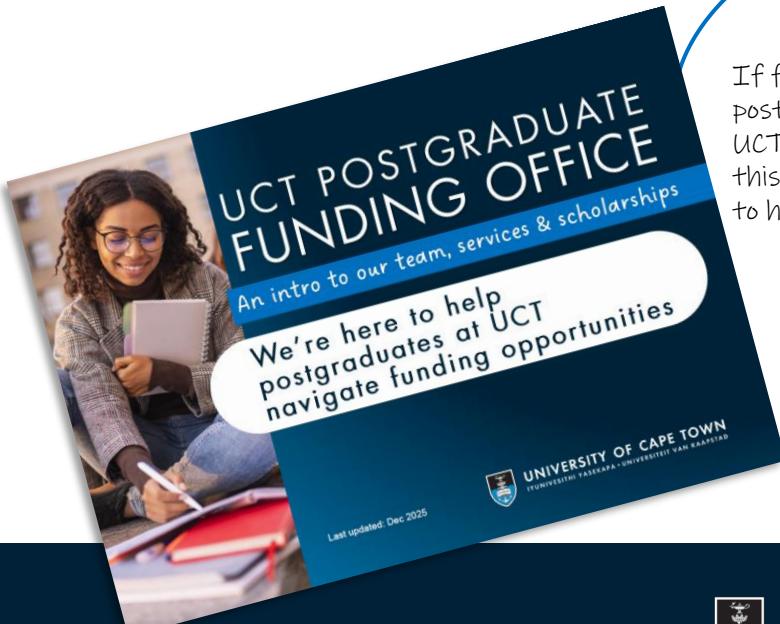

UNIVERSITY OF CAPE TOWN
IYUNIVESITHI YASEKAPA • UNIVERSITEIT VAN KAAPSTAD

Helping
postgrads
navigate funding opportunities

Postgraduate Funding Office (PGFO)

The PGFO is your first port of call for navigating the complex world of postgraduate student funding. Located in the Otto Beit building, level 3, this service offers advice on scholarships, bursaries, fellowships and funding applications. Providing vital guidance to students who need financial support but don't know how to access it.

Scan the QR code
for more info

If finding funding for your postgraduate studies at UCT feels overwhelming, this brochure is designed to help you get started.